Ms. Gunier stated there was a complaint on this property back in July. This property is a little bit of a mess. Ms. Gunier stated she has spoken with Mr. Garrett and he has agreed to clean the property but it has been a very slow process. Ms. Gunier stated her recommendation is to have the Commission go ahead and sign the order and we will work with him but we will need a requirement of two or three weeks to get this done.

Mr. Garrett was present on behalf of the property and he stated he would like to have three weeks if he could to get him closer to his next pay check. Mr. Garrett stated this is going to cost to get things hauled off.

Commissioner Pearson asked what the plan was for the property. Commissioner Pearson asked if he was just planning on hauling everything off this property. Commissioner Pearson asked if there was a porch on this property.

Mr. Garrett stated he was planning on hauling everything off but the porch is actually a new porch so he would like to keep that timber. Mr. Garrett stated his sons were coming up to help him clean up the property but they also will not be up for a few days.

Commissioner Pearson stated they could extend the time for the trailer to be hauled off however the trash around the area needs to be cleaned soon.
