PROCLAMATION RECOGNIZING THE SHARP END HERITAGE COMMITTEE AND THE DEDICATION OF THE HISTORIC SHARP END

WHEREAS, located between Fifth and Sixth streets on Walnut, Sharp End was a self-sufficient, nationally known area where thriving black-owned businesses operated for more than fifty years and during its era served as the cultural, entertainment and business center of black life for many Columbia residents and visitors; and

WHEREAS, many of the Sharp End's businesses were passed down through families for generations, provided a significant number of jobs for the black community and included, among other things, restaurants, a taxi company, barbershops, blacksmiths, a theater, cafes, pool halls, nightclubs and a community center; and

WHEREAS, the Sharp End Heritage Committee was established in 2014 to recognize this significant place in Columbia - a place that was demolished during Urban Renewal in the early 1960s which had an overwhelming and enduring impact on many residents; and

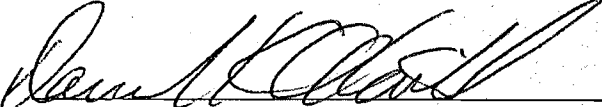

WHEREAS, to help encourage renewed development of minority-owned businesses and greater understanding throughout Columbia, the Sharp End Heritage Committee has put together a multi-faceted plan for recognizing Sharp End's historical significance, an effort that includes placing a historic marker on the Sharp End block, capturing oral histories of surviving family members, creating a publication that records the history and celebrating the occasion at a public reception; and

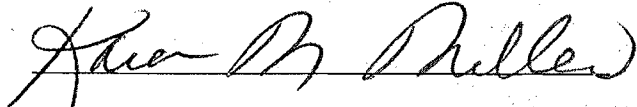

WHEREAS, by recognizing Columbia's broader history and the historic contributions black businesses have made to the community, we can increase trust and pave the way for a greater future;

THEREFORE, the Boone County Commission proudly recognizes the Sharp End Heritage Committee in Columbia, Missouri, and celebrates the dedication of the Historic Sharp End marker during this proud moment of well-deserved distinction.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, this 19th Day of May, 2015.
